

Photographs are taken throughout the conference. All sessions, networking, and professional portrait photographs will be posted with conference resources. All presenters and attendees' consent to having their images used by PLMA for promotional purposes in the future. Images of yourself may be used at your discretion. You agree to not use any other individual's image without their express permission.